07 Discipline
A code of conduct developed by the school community governs the behaviour of all learners. This forms the basis of learner discipline, the intention being to foster self-discipline.

08 Uniforms
The attractive and practical uniform is compulsory school wear.

09 Extracurriculars
Sport activities include athletics, cricket, cross country, hockey, netball, soccer and table tennis. Choir, brass band and music ensemble are offered. Stage dramas offer opportunities for learners to develop acting skills.

10 Houses
Murray, named after Andrew Murray, is lime green. Morris, named after Samuel Morris, is orange.

MISSION

ACADEMICS

- The Curriculum Assessment Policy Statement (CAPS) is implemented. The LOLT is English. English is the only home language offered until Grade 9.
- Grade 12 students write the IEB Senior Certificate Examination. Domino Servite has achieved 100% Matric pass rate since its registration as an examination centre in 1988.
- Our learners are registered to participate in the IEB Core Skills Test and the ACER International Benchmarking Test to ensure comparable global standards.
- Our learners participate in many Olympiads and various external co-curricular competitions.
- Homework is given to reinforce what has been done in the classroom and to encourage independent research and study habits.
- Intervention strategies are developed to assist learners who experience barriers to learning.

Domino Servite has a library, art centres and laboratories for the sciences.
